

CRAZY SKATERS

Once upon a time, there lived a boy named Rahul. He loved skating a lot but his parents did not allow him to do skating. One day while he was going to school, he saw his friend Aditya eating an ICE-CREAM. He went to him and asked for an ice-cream and Aditya quickly bought an ice-cream for him. In the school Aditya invited Rahul so that he can teach Rahul skating. Rahul agrees and he was very excited. After school when Rahul was going to Aditya house he suddenly fell sick as, has ate an ice-cream in the morning.

After few days when Rahul was better, he decided to go to school because he was not going to school from the day as he was sick. When he reached school Aditya was teasing him that Rahul is scared of skating and he became very ANGRY. So, he made a plan to steal Aditya's skate board and he ran to a mountain place, practiced there a lot, and became a professional skater.

Now Rahul was grown up, so he decided to go back home. When he reached home, everyone was very upset with him because he had stolen Aditya skateboard. Rahul told everything to his mother, He realized his mistake and promised his mother that this won't never happen again. Rahul returned Aditya's skate board. Now Aditya was angry on Rahul.

After few days Rahul's mother bought him a skate board. One day when Rahul was going to college, someone kidnapped him and took him to mountain again. The kidnapper was Aditya. Aditya said to Rahul that if he wins the race he will let him go but, if he lost the race Aditya would kill him. Luckily Rahul wins but, when he was going home he suddenly remembered that he was in for a competition of skating and he knew that he will not reach in time.

While the competition was going on he saw a man CHEATING. He threw a stone on someone and he fell down. Police caught Rahul and put him in jail as, they thought that Rahul was the culprit.

At last only the only way for Rahul was to escape from the jail so, Rahul escape but, when Rahul escape he saw a police officer. The police officer put Rahul back to jail, Suddenly Rahul confessed everything that had happened in the competition. So, the police caught the man who was cheating and put him in the jail.

The days passed by, One day Rahul was going to college he saw his friend Aditya. They remembered what had happened, they both sat and resolved everything and both became friends again. They studied together and had lots of fun. They ate lots of ice-creams without fighting. Now they both are professional skater. Their parents felt proud and gave them gifts. This was an incredible the journey of a crazy skater.

MORAL: HARD WORK LEADS TO SUCCESS.